MAY 27 1955

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Plans for the test of Federal Departments and Agencies on June 15, 16 and 17, 1955, have been discussed with the President and have received his general approval.

In accordance with these plans, the heads of certain Departments and Agencies are expected to report at [] At the same time their next in command is expected to proceed to his emergency relocation post. 25X8

The Department and Agency heads reporting at [] on June 15 will spend the first period of time advising as to emergency actions which should be taken. After this initial period which should end early that evening, they will proceed to their respective relocation sites with the understanding that they might at any time be called to participate in additional consideration of problems. 25X8

Accordingly, it is requested that you proceed to [] on the sounding of the alert warning in Washington, D. C. at 12:05 P.M., D.S.T. Wednesday, June 15, 1955. At the same time, your next in command should proceed to his emergency relocation post. 25X8

Because of limited space you should plan to take not more than one assistant with you whom it is requested you leave at [] for the test to act as your liaison representative. 25X8
